

FINAL DECISION 9s & 8s

1. That great, tre-men-dous day's ap-proach-ing, That aw-ful scene is draw-ing nigh, } Prepare, my soul, re-flect and won-der,
Which was fore-told by an-cient proph-ets, Decreed from all e-ter-ni-ty; }

2. See na-ture stand-ing in a-maze-ment, To hear the last loud trum-pet sound; } The orb-ed lamps all veiled in sack-cloth,
A-rise, ye dead, and come to judg-ment, Ye na-tions of this world a-round. }

3. Green graveyards, and the tombs of mar-ble, Give up their dead, both small and great; } See Je-sus on the throne of jus-tice,
And the whole world, both saint and sin-ner, Are coming to the judg-ment seat; }

That aw-ful scene is draw-ing near, When you shall see the great trans-ac-tion, When Christ in judgment shall ap-pear.

No more their shi-ning cir-cuit run, The wheel of time now stopp'd for-ev-er, E-ter-nal things are now be-gun.

In clouds de-scend-ing from the sky, With countless hosts of shi-ning an-gels, With hal-le-lu-jahs shout for joy.
